EIGHTY-NINTH CONGRESS

Congress of the United States House of Representatives

GOVERNMENT ACTIVITIES SUBCOMMITTEE
OF THE
COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENT OPERATIONS

RAYBURN HOUSE OFFICE BUILDING, ROOM B350-B

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE WASHINGTON, D.C. 20515
March 24, 1965

WASHINGTON, D. C. - Hearings on legislation to coordinate Government use of automatic data processing equipment will be held by the House Government Activities Subcommittee beginning March 30, Southeast Texas Congressman Jack Brooks (D-Texas) announced today.

Congressman Brooks, Subcommittee Chairman, said the hearings will begin at 10 a.m. in Room 2203 of the Rayburn House Office Building.

Joseph Campbell, the Comptroller General of the United States, will testify. Representatives of interested government departments and agencies have also been invited to appear.

The testimony will relate to H. R. 4845, a bill "to provide for the economic and efficient purchase, lease, maintenance, operation and utilization of automatic data processing equipment by Federal departments and agencies," which was introduced by Congressman Brooks.

Congressman Brooks said other organizations or individuals interested in testifying at the hearings should contact the Subcommittee (Room B-350-B, Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, D. C., Phone: 225-3252) no later than Friday, March 26. He said written statements will also be welcomed.

The members of the Subcommittee are Congressmen William S. Moorhead (D-Pa.), David S. King (D-Utah), Dante B. Fascell (D-Fla.), Ogden R. Reid (R-N.Y.), and Edward J. Gurney (R-Fla.).

The Subcommittee is part of the House Government Operations Committee, which is headed by Congressman William L. Dawson (D-Ill.).
